St. Timothy's Church Newsletter

Diocesan Convention

The Diocese of South Carolina's 227th Diocesan Convention starts Friday, March 9th and ends on Saturday, March 10th. Steve Wingard and Nick Rehbaum will be representing St. Timothy's at the convention, with Frank Freeman and Earline Ross on standby as alternates.

What goes on at these conventions? Glad you asked! Friday afternoon starts with workshops on various topics. For the last two years, our priest, Gary, has been invited to host a workshop, and this year he's getting a welcomed break.

Friday evening is a Holy Eucharist service for all who attend and this year's guest speaker is The Rt. Rev. Clark W. P. Lowenfield, Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of the Western Gulf Coast, ACNA. The Eucharist is followed by a dinner. You can check the Diocesan website to see if you can still register (there is a fee) to attend Friday's workshops, Eucharist, and dinner.

Saturday morning is the beginning of the business part of the convention with lots of reports and voting. If you would like to see the resolutions that will be voted on, check them out here.

Vestry Junior Warden

Darlene Kidd is our new Junior Warden! Last month's newsletter heralded the addition of Darlene and Fred Smyth to the Vestry, and that Nelson Weaver is our Senior Warden. The Junior Warden is also known as "the People's Warden." Keep all of our Vestry in your prayers as they faithfully and lovingly make decisions regarding St. Timothy's.

Del Webb Mixers

Wynne Boone and Curt and Rita Pitts have graciously opened up their homes to invite residents of Del Webb to introduce them to St. Timothy's Church. The first event, at Wynne's, occurred in late February and the second, at Curt's and Rita's, will be toward the end of March. Please pray that the guests as well as those from St. Timothy's who generously hosted, provided food, and attended will be blessed!
